American Heritage School Presents “An American Heritage Christmas”
Special Guests Dallyn Vail Bayles, Steven Kapp Perry, and Honoree Janice Kapp Perry

American Fork, UT – American Heritage School & Family Education Center is proud to announce its 2010 “An American Heritage Christmas” benefit concerts. On December 11th, national recording artist Dallyn Vail Bayles will perform with the American Heritage Lyceum Philharmonic Orchestra and American Heritage Youth Chorus, and songwriter, playwright, broadcaster and Pearl Award winner Steven Kapp Perry will host the events.

In addition to the Christmas program, American Heritage celebrates songwriter Janice Kapp Perry’s four decades of contributions to sacred music, which includes more than 50 albums. To honor Janice, a new arrangement of one of her works, donated by renowned composer Sam Cardon, will be premiered.

Tickets for the concerts can be purchased online or by phone; $16 (advance), $18 (2:00 p.m. matinee at the door), $20 (7:30 p.m. at the door). Proceeds from the concerts directly benefit American Heritage orchestra and choir student and music scholarship programs. Additional donations in support of the school and students can be sent to American Heritage, 736 N. 1100 East, American Fork, Utah 84003, by calling (801) 642-0055, or by donating online at www.American-Heritage.org/giving.htm.

About Dallyn Vail Bayles

Originally from Green River, Utah, Dallyn is a professional actor, singer and recording artist. Dallyn has toured throughout the United States and Canada, most recently with the national tours of Phantom of the Opera and Les Miserables. Dallyn has been featured as a guest soloist with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and in Church productions including Savior of the World, The Nauvoo Pageant, and the Temple Square film Joseph Smith the Prophet of the Restoration.

Dallyn remains in demand as a performer and is featured in over a dozen albums. His debut solo album, Prayer, received two Pearl Awards (Inspirational Album and New Recording Artist) from the Faith Centered Music Association, and a Listener’s Choice Award (New Artist) from the LDS Booksellers Association. About American Heritage School

American Heritage School is an independent, non-profit organization with 600 students in grades K-12 as well as 500 enrollees in its newly-launched Distance Education Program. Another 250 students attend award-winning, orchestra and choir programs on an after-school basis. Founded in 1970 by a group of BYU professors and spouses, American Heritage School is one of the longest operating LDS-oriented elementary and secondary schools in the nation, and the only school of its kind in Utah County offering kindergarten through high school education.
