Director's Note

We are excited to present the beautiful story of Beauty & The Beast.

I love the transformations that take place and the messages taught in this musical. Throughout this production we have discussed these transformations & messages as a cast. My favorite is from Maurice & Belle's song "No Matter What". The phrase, "No matter what they say, I'm by your side," has really stood out to me throughout this production. Whether it is our family, friends or colleagues, we all need to feel help, support and love.

I love that at American Heritage we can teach, remind and remember that we have a loving Heavenly Father and Savior who are willing to be "by our side;" that no matter what the world says they are by our side. They are there for us, cheering us on and speaking truth among the noise of life. There is so much power in knowing that we are all children of God! Every day I can choose to invite them into my life to lead me, guide me and walk beside me.

It has been a privilege to work with and learn from this amazing cast. Thank you for coming and for your endless support! Enjoy the show!

—Amy Oelrich, Director

Amy Oelrich—Director/Musical Director

Amy started her AHS journey as vocal director for Les Misérables last spring. Amy's true passion and calling in life is being a teacher—lifting others, showing them routes to succeed, and helping them achieve their dreams. For over 20 years, she coached vocal performance and musical theater at Hollister High School in California. She has also found joy in using her abilities to lift, motivate, and love in various church callings and assignments. These days, Amy teaches 6th grade and is the musical director at American Heritage school. Wherever she is and whoever she is with, Amy always tries to bring out the very best in others—often with a big smile on her face and a diet soda in hand. Amy has loved working with this fantastic production team and cast. She would like to thank her amazing family for their hours of help and support!

Paul Walstad—Associate Director

Paul is thrilled to helping out at AHS and enjoying the process thoroughly. He has many years of doing theater, both professionally and at the High School level. Yet, he has noticed there is something at this school that is different and new. He loves lyrics: “Barely even friends, then somebody bends, unexpectedly.” He gives a shout out to his lovely and brilliant wife Jennifer and their five children. Thank you for giving true meaning to the word “home.”
